Infinity

Against the Current

Rooftop, tonight we are the skyline
Collecting shooting stars, wishes in a jar
All the hearts, wide awake and lonely
Dream of where we areRun so fast, the wind can't catch us
It's at our back, the sun is falling
Things don't last, when you're young cause
All you get is just one chance toBreak away to beat the odds
All along its been a race against the clock
Time won't wait we're gonna leave
Somewhere we'll find infinity
We'll find infinityBreaking hearts just for the hell of it
Anything so we can feel dangerous
Everywhere we go we leave shadows from the past
We won't die young but we'll live fastRun so fast, the wind can't catch us
It's at our back, the sun is falling
Things don't last, when you're young cause
All you get is just one chance toBreak away to beat the odds
All along its been a race against the clock
Time won't wait we're gonna leave
Somewhere we'll find infinity
We'll find infinityInfinityâ€”â€”Break away to beat the odds
All along its been a race against the clock
Time won't wait we're gonna leave
Somewhere we'll find infinityBreak away to beat the odds
All along its been a race against the clock
Time won't wait we're gonna leave
Somewhere we'll find infinityWe'll find infinity
