Tears

From Here On

It seems your world is misplaced
And the sadness I see from your body tears a hole in me
Is there an answer? It seems so unclear
I only hope for the best
What is it you're thinking?
I wish there was a way for me to counteract with your thoughts
Understand, realize, make comfort with your mind's eye
I know so much is going on, but it wont escapre your eyes
I only hope for the best
My heart breaks to see the look in your eyes
I need this thorn to leave my side
I wish there was something I could do
I wish only the best for you, my love is always there for you
Stay strong
I realize this problem is unavoidable
My actions have no impact
Time is not healing the wounds
Their tears are painful
What did you do to deserve this anguish, nothing
I wish I could make a change, I wish the power was in my hands
I stand by your side
