

One Man Army

Sepultura

Your green is for money
My green is for land
Shut off my eyes
Clog up my ears
Cut off my tongue
You'll still hear me comingMy blood is thicker
My pain will rise
Boycott my ideas
Fueled with the hate I feel
Infiltrated with the lies
That you're feeding meOne man armyOur strength's your weakness
Our truth's your lies
Shut off my eyes
Clog up my ears
Cut off my tongue
You'll still hear me comingSurrounded by mistrust
Trapped in your mind
All you hear is what you fear
And all you fear is what you don't know
All you know is what you see
And what you see won't last foreverOne man armyOur truth will echo and echo forever
Tormenting you forever and ever
You'll still hear me coming through to youBoycott my ideas
Fueled with the hate I feel
Infiltrated with the lies
That you're feeding meOne man and I'm coming for you
