One Man Army

Sepultura

Your green is for money

My green is for land

Shut off my eyes

Clog up my ears

Cut off my tongue

You'll still hear me comingMy blood is thicker

My pain will rise

Boycott my ideas

Fueled with the hate I feel

Infiltrated with the lies

That you're feeding meOne man armyOur strength's your weakness

Our truth's your lies

Shut off my eyes

Clog up my ears

Cut off my tongue

You'll still hear me comingSurrounded by mistrust

Trapped in your mind

All you hear is what you fear

And all you fear is what you don't know

All you know is what you see

And what you see won't last foreverOne man armyOur truth will echo and echo forever

Tormenting you forever and ever

You'll still hear me coming through to youBoycott my ideas

Fueled with the hate I feel

Infiltrated with the lies

That you're feeding meOne man and I'm coming for you
