

The High Road

Hayley Reardon

This, this ain't about me
And I'm going easy
Easy on you now
I know you say I
Could have took the high road
But I an't never seen no high road
Along this side of town (have you?) At least I only want
What I say I do
I may be last to dance
But hell I'm first to move
And if I ever tried to pull off
All the crazy things you do
I'd want you to skip the high road too I've heard people say
You get what you pay for
And when it comes to love, well
They say you get all that and more
But you came cheap broken from the start
And it didn't cost a dime to watch you
Tear it all apart Chorus When are you every gonna learn my friend
There ain't gonna be no hearts left to bend
If you won't just break em, break em, break em Chorus
