Rise Against

Our buildings have fallen, our walls all caved in And we can't comprehend this sad state that we're in So we sift through the ashes of what we've become And surrender here one by one, so push us down And we get right back up again The things you're telling me aren't making any sense Right back up again I'm sick of wishing for someone else to come Let the blind lead the blind 'Cause it's eye for an eye in your so called life Are you out there? Are you listening? Is there something we're still missing? Let the blind lead the blind 'Cause it's eye for an eye, we all fall down And we get right back up again The things you're telling me aren't making any sense Right back up again I'm sick of wishing for someone else to come We're spinning out of control We're trying to find somewhere to land And I don't want you to know The things that keep me down 'Cause we get right back up again The things you're telling me aren't making any sense Right back up again I'm sick of wishing for someone else to come
