

Jodie

Rod Stewart

Ooh hoo
Just a telegram
When your plane touches down
Are you sure that I ain't talking to myself?
And when the seatbelt sign goes on,
You know you're not alone
'Cause Jodie I still love ya
All the while And I wish ya all the best
With your current success
Don't let the flash boys turn your head
And I don't mind you havin' friends
But your love is not to lend 'Cause Jodie I still love ya
Always thinkin' of ya
Jodie I still love ya
All the while But I'm gonna have to get by anyway, hmmm
And you know with the winter comin' on, it's gonna be so hard
And I really, really, really, really don't miss ya anyway, not anyway
And you know how I lie
Hmm, oww So I wish you all the best
With your current success
Don't let the flash boys turn your head
And I don't mind ya havin' friends,
But your love is not to lend, remember Jodie I still love ya
I'm always thinkin' of ya
Jodie I still love ya
All the while
Jodie I still love ya
I'm always thinkin' of ya
Jodie I still love ya
All the time
