Fall Apart

Ikon

If I wake from dreams
Shall I fall in pastures
Will I wake the darkness
Shall we torch the earthIf I wake from dreams
Shall we find the emptiness
That breaks the silence
That shall stop our heartsIf I wake from dreams
Shall we cry together
For the howling echoes
And restart the nightAnd why did you say
That things shall fall
And fall and fall and fall
And fall apart (2)If I wake from dreams
For the glory of nothing
For the cracking of the sun
For the crawling down of liesIf we fall from dreams
Shall we push them into darkness
Stare into the howling
And clamber in the nightIf we fall from dreams
All my prayers are silenced
To love is to loose
And to loose is to dieAnd why did you say
That things shall fall
And fall and fall and fall
And fall apart (3)And why did you say
That things shall fallFrom: In The Shadow of The Angelby Chris McCarter
