Sing to Me

The Millennium

Sundown, summer is fading
Run now, here the winter comes
Deep down in some snowdrift
Frozen fire, you thought you found the lift
It's a showdown, it's a Mexican standoff
And the river is the prize
To float away on her current
To the sea lover, to the sea
And I know there's a song in the wind to the sky
And I know there's a song somewhere for you and I
What I don't know is if we'll hear it
I'm a losin' spirit, woman sing to me
And I know there's a song in the wind to the sky
And I know there's a song somewhere for you and I
What I don't know is if we'll hear it
I'm a losin' spirit, woman sing to me
Oh, what I don't know is if we'll hear it
I'm a losin' spirit, woman sing to me
Oh, I'm fading
