Daddy

Jewel

My bones are tired, Daddy
I don't get enough sleep
I don't eat as good as I could, Daddy
What's that say about me?You know sometimes I sleep past noon, Daddy
I drink lots of black coffee and I smoke like a chimney,
Yes, I left the refrigerator door half open, Daddy
What's that say about me?You know sometimes I want to rip out your throat, Daddy
For all those things you said that were mean,
I'm gonna make you just as vulnerable as I was, Daddy
What's that say about me?You know sometimes I want to bash in your teeth, Daddy
I'm gonna use your tongue as a stamp
I'm gonna rip your heart out the way you did mine, Daddy
Go ahead and psycho-analyze that'Cause I'm your creation, I'm your love Daddy
Grown up to be and do all those sick things you said that I would do
Well last night I saw you sneak out your window
With your white hood, Daddy
What's that say about you?
I'm sloppy, what's that say about you?
I'm messy, what's that say about you?My bones are tired, Daddy.
