

Ballad Of Mcfly, Jr.

Ben Kenobi

Wait, I need to catch that bus
Iâ€™m late for school
She was the dream by my side
Don't let me go then you're gone

Wait, I hate to be alone
But it needs to be just you
We're a black and white film
Without a sound, I hear you

Pull me aside to take a vow of secrecy
Before losing you in the abyss of space and time
Falling into you into the presence of you

I need- to get into you before you leave me

Wait, waiting for you
A ghost town
A dead end breaks my clown
Let those dead ones pass me by
In my dream, I'll get you out

Pull me aside to take a vow of secrecy
Before losing you in the abyss of space and time
Falling into you into the presence of you

I need- to see you again before you leave me
NOW

Pull me aside to take a vow of secrecy
Before losing you in the abyss of space and time
Falling into you into the presence of you

It's hard to stay in love with life without you
Stay in love with Life without you
Stay in love with Life without you
Stay in love with Life without you
Stay in love with Life without you
