Bitter taste

Camouflage

Go ahead and nail
My face to the floor
'Cause you know I'll never
(Make it on my own)
You're the blood in my veins
You're the fire burning
Deep insideA bitter taste of today
Such as each one that passes
I'll fight this again tomorrow
Watch as the scales fall
From my eyes
Another chance to overcomeA bitter taste of today
In a moment it can fade away
(Our lives can change so fast)
You're the blood in my veins
The fire burning deep insideA bitter taste of today
Such as each one that passes
I'll fight this again tomorrow
Watch as the scales fall
From my eyes
Another chance to overcomeYou'll see a change in me
Watch as the scales fall
From my eyes
You'll see a change in me
Watch as the scales fall
From my eyesA bitter taste of today
Such as each one that passes
I'll fight this again tomorrow
Watch as the scales fall
From my eyes
Another chance to overcome
