The Night Is Yours

Carl Thomas

It's a beautiful night, feel like I can get lost in your eyes
Take a led, be my guide, I'll sit back and enjoy the ride
You can't take your hands inside ? across the sky
Fee yourself, your worry is about the price becauseIt doesn't cost a dime, the night is yours, to you it belongs
It's not set in stone, and get what you want
However it goes, you make it yours
The night is yours, the night is yours
The night is yours, the night is yours!Go ahead and stop the hands of time
And you're close to the melody inside of your mine!
Baby, take this opportunity to make all your dreams come to life
You can't take your hands inside ? across the sky
Fee yourself, your worry is about the price becauseIt doesn't cost a dime, the night is yours, to you it belongs
It's not set in stone, and get what you want
However it goes, you make it yours
The night is yours, the night is yours
The night is yours, the night is yours!You don't have to wish upon a star tonight
They're envious of you, the way you shine so bright
You're in control of your world
? the moment, cause you want it yeah yeah, yeahThe night is yours, to you it belongs
It's not set in stone, and get what you want
However it goes, you make it yours
The night is yours, the night is yours
The night is yours, the night is yours!
