Rock the Nations

Saxon

Big wheels are rolling
On through the night
We hit the city in the morning
No time to eat or sleepSix concerts in a week
Take the show across the nation
Could this be San Antone?
Or am I stood in Rome?Is the real or am I dreaming?
Standing by the backstage door
Just like the one before
We're here to set the spirit freeGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound
We'll rock the nationsGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound
We'll rock the nationsWait for the curtain call
Excitement in the hall
The stage crew ready at their stations
The houselights start to dimAnother show begins
Now it's time to rock the nations
Stand in the flashing lights
The music fills the nightThe feeling just goes on and on
We take the last encore
The first of many more
The spotlight takes the final bowGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound
We'll rock the nationsGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound
We'll rock the nationsGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound
We'll rock the nationsGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound
We'll rock the nationsGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound

We'll rock the nationsBig wheels are rolling
On thru' the night
Daylight comes without warning
North, south, east and west
We'll put you to the test
As we rock across your nationGive us the stage
Turn on the lights
Fire up the sound
We'll rock the nations
(Repeat to end)
