

Living Your Dream

The Plot in You

Scared I'm off again
Cut me up I'm thrown away
As much as I pretend
There's still a fault that I can't change Who knows, who knows
If I'll be kicking
I'll be living for the next try
Who knows, who knows
'Cause I've been using
I've been choosing all the same lines You think you got me, you think you got me figured out?
It's been too long and you're quick to judge things
Without taking the time to see for yourself [Chorus]
I've been living your dream
And I don't ever wanna wake up
Through these times I became
Another voice for the fucked up
I've been living a dream
(I've been living a dream) [Bridge]
Come on!
You're just remembering all the pain
But we were young and you were selfish too
And nothing can phase you
What's changed? [Breakdown]
Do you wish I was dead
Do you hope, do you pray I'm a lost cause?
Was it something I did?
'Cause I'll push and I'll fight til it's all gone [Chorus] [Post-Chorus]
I've been living your dream
I've been living your dream
Living your dream [Outro]
You call me a dead man
You said I'd never fucking make it to this point
And I'm so glad to see your life start to crumble
While I'm living your dream
