If No One Ever Marries Me

Natalie Merchant

Well if no one ever marries me
And I don't see why they should Nurse says I'm not pretty
And you know I'm seldom good, seldom good
Well if no one ever marries me
I shan't mind very much
Buy a squirrel in a cage
And a little rabbit-hutch
No one marries me
If no one marries me
No one marries me
If no one marries me
Well if no one marries me
I'll have a cottage near a wood

And a pony all my own
A little lamb quite clean and tame
That I can take to town
When I'm really getting old
At twenty-eight or nine
I'll buy myself a little orphan-girl
And bring her up as mine
No one marries me
If no one marries me
No one marries me
If no one marries me
If no one marries me
Marries me
Well if no one marries me
Marries me
If no one marries me
