Crystal Lewis

Dirty devices, divide and devise
A plan to diminish our creative minds
Distorting our views, of ourselves and our minds
Destructive dirty devices
Destructive dirty devices We are more than we know
We are more than we know
We are meant for more than this world would suppose
We are more than we know I believe in all things spiritual
That God is in this place
Always watching, guiding,
Knowing what the look on my face means
Knowing every thought before I think it and it's gone
Knowing each word I'm gonna say before it rolls off my tongue
Knowing each word I'm gonna say before it rolls off my tongue We are more than we know
We are more than we know
We are meant for more than this world would suppose
We are more than we know
