

Lockdown

Grinspoon

It's a steal, so unreal, baby you should know it i'm inside, i can't hide, i'd love for you to show it all the little lies you told made a pile of shit for sure just be true tell me now, is this still going on"?

lockdown and waiting for the end lockdown and waiting for it i am trapped by these chains can't do nothin bout it when i hear, bout your games turns me inside out why'd you have to be like that why'd you have to cheat on me now i feel, like you've stolen everything from me

left on my own no telephone nowhere to hide
inside your lies
