Lead Me On

Claire Lynch

Oh Lord, when You hide Your face from me
And I pass through the darkness of my soul
Unaware that the shadow of Your rings
Is keepin' me from standin' in the coldSomewhere out of the darkness
I need a light to shine
Fair as the moon, bright as the sun
Oh, I need You to lead me on, lead me onAnd when this calloused heart turns into stone
And the shadows are falling on my mind
Turn around in Your silence, hear my voice
I'm prayin' for Your mercy one more timeSomewhere out of the darkness
Your light begins to shine
Fair as the moon, bright as the sun
And I know You will lead me on, lead me onLead me on, I will follow, lead me on Oh, lead me on, I will follow, lead me onWhen this veil of doubt surrounds me, I will look for You
Never turning to the left or to the right
Like a sailor with his eyes upon the stars
Traveling through the shadows of the nightSomewhere out of the darkness
Your light will always shine
Fair as the moon, bright as the sun
Oh, I believe You will lead me on, lead me on
