

Fashion Pack (Studio 54)

Amanda Lear

It was night and suddenly I felt like dancing I took a cab to show me to the disco scene he said: o.k.

you wanna see those crazy people hastling at the door to get into Studio 54. Well I was in and everybody was "travolting" the fashion queens the models and the movie stars Andy snapping

Margaux dancing with ScavulloLiza dancing on the floor and Bianca walking through the door. Who is in ? Who is out ? Tell me tell me

who is in ? Who is out ? Famous and trendy. In people always have to smile in Vogue they only travel by Concorde doing things you can't afford. They are the fashion pack people you see in the magazines they are the fashion pack

they're always smiling in their limousines they only come on their trendy track they are the fashion pack. In Paris you got to be seen at Maxim's the Palace

the "7" and then go Chez Regine Champagne
caviar
haute-couture expensive cars

Saint Laurent and Loulou rich ladies with a few bijoux. Who is in ? Who is out ? Tell me tell me

who is in ? Who is out ? Woman's wear Dally. Rock stars sniffing while Marisa's posing

Paloma's counting her paintings the models of Zoli flirting. They are the fashion pack

they are the fashion pack. They are the fashion pack they read a lot of silly magazines like to sit around gossiping in the back of their limousines. They are the fashion pack
they only come out after dark got to keep on their trendy track they are the fashion pack.
Hey
what's your name didn't I see you in Interview last month or was it the Ritz gee you're so famous may I have your autograph.it's a holi-holiday
