My Heart, Your Heart

The Whispers

Don't understand why you can't see through me
My heart is one, calling out to you
No other love can give you what you're needing
No one is there like I am for youHe'll never change your life
He'll never change your life, girl
He doesn't know you like I do
He don't know you at allAll I can ask is your time
Just a little of your time, baby
All I can ever want is a chance to proveI'm tellin' you, my heart wants to be there for you
Your heart, is with someone else
My heart wants to be there for you, love
My heart wants to be thereYou're one who needs full time affection
He only gives when it's his to gain
My love is here to give you direction
But how can you have what you just won't claimHe'll never change your life
He'll never change you, girl
He doesn't know you like I do
He don't know you at allAll I can ask is your time
Five minutes alone, baby
All I can ever want is a chance to proveMy heart wants to be there for you
Your heart, is with someone else
My heart wants to be there for you, love
Be there for you, loveHe'll never change your life
You never change your life
He doesn't know you like I do
He don't know you at all, babyAll I can ask is your time
Just five minutes of your time, girl
All I can ever want is a chance to proveI'm telling you, my heart wants to be there for you
Your heart, is with someone else
My heart wants to be there for you, loveMy heart wants to be there for you
Your heart, is with someone else
My heart wants to be there for you, loveMy heart wants to be there for you
Your heart, is with someone else
My heart wants to be there for you, love
