

So Disgusted

The Flipsides

I'm walking on a thin line
I'm about to throw in the towel
And now I'm just so disgusted I could puke
I'm feeling like a reject
But what else should I expect?
That's why I say that I'm just so frustrated
And I don't know what to...
Fear's no stranger
Disappointment's my friend
And it makes me question
if I'll get up again
Fear's no stranger
Disappointment's my friend
And it makes me question if I'll get up again
Stuck in an intersection
Redlights in all four directions
And now I'm so misdirected, how about you?
I'm running out of ideas
Perpetual spinning of wheels
And it's leaving me so damn frustrated
And I don't know what to...
