Carry Your Heart

ARORA

all the things i've done in time were justified the day stars aligned and you came here and filled this space of an empty place inside my soul left open by old loves grown cold and when i saw you angels sang amazing graceso don't let go too soon or hold on too strong a love like this could never be wrong to hold you, i will with all my might the most significant thing i'll ever do has to do with loving you to hold you, and keep you warm at nighthave you ever walked down a road alone and noticed how it seemed so long and you wondered if you're ever gonna make it home but you carry in your heart a love you've found and it lifts you up as your thoughts turn around and you can feel it as it gently lays you downso don't let go too soon or hold on too strong
a love like this could never be wrong
to hold you, i will with all my might
the most significant thing i'll ever do
has to do with loving you to hold you, and keep you warm at nighti carry your heart wherever i go i carry it in my heart (repeat 5 times)

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/