

Do It Well (feat. Tom Aspaul) [Russ Chimes Remix]

XYconstant

breaking, breaking
break, break
breaking, breaking
bre-bre-bre
breaking, breaking (breaking) breaking, breakingbreaking, breaking
breaking, breaking
bre-bre-bre
breaking, breaking
breakbaby came here for a minute, baby came here for a lie what you're saying, i hear nothing i'm too wrapped up in your eyesyou're giving the long version of the tale i did nothing wrong but i feel like i failed you want me so much and i know it, too
reciprocating isn't something i doi only say it
you really do it well
your heart was just like breaking x2
i only say it
your heart was just like breaking your heart was just likebreaking, breaking
breaking, breaking
bre-bre-bre
break(breaking, breaking break, breaking, breaking)come away from the window, now come away from my side they won't give you an answer that they don't give you the timei wanted to love you all that i could but i trip myself up
when you treat me good
i wanted to love you give you a chance

give you a chance x2i only say it
i always say it
your heart was just like breakingand you do it well x4
you really do do it well x4baby came here for a minute baby came here for a liebreaking, breaking
breaking, breaking
bre-bre-bre
breaking, breaking
bre-bre-bre
breaking, breaking (breaking)i only say it (i only say it)
