

Watch Me Rise

Mikky Ekko

When it's cold out
When the night is still
And you're standing alone
I'll be racing when the lights go out
And you're losing control

Oh higher, higher, higher we go
And tell me, tell me
Are we close enough to test the sun, the sun?
Oh, higher, higher, higher we go
And tell me, tell me
The journey's only just begun, begun

I'm still standing
I'm still coming
Even when the rest are falling
The rest are falling
The rest are falling
I'm still standing
I'm still coming
Even when the best are falling
The best are falling
The best are falling

You say, say my name
'Cause once I get my head above the clouds
I'm never coming down
Say, say my name
'Cause once I get my head above the clouds
In the skies, watch me rise
Watch you rise

I'm paranoid, I'm setting in
I'm falling from the stars again
While every part of me screams, hold on
'Cause if you can't learn to pin a new break
Oh my God, how long does it take?
Every lesson we learn took so long
But has made us strong

Higher, higher, higher we go
Right into the fire we go
