

All For One

Alpine

Imagine me falling
Or am I new?
I am now roaring
We could
Answer
Maybe
We could
Answer
(I am all for one when I strike
(Find a way to a heart, don't turn away)
'Cause this is our time
Imagine me falling
I am now roaring
We could
Answer
Maybe
We could
Answer
(I am all for one when I strike
(Find a way to a heart, don't turn away)
'Cause this is our time
'Cause this is our time
I have
A thousand questions
I have
A thousand questions
Something that you never were
Something that I always was
Something that you never were
Something that I always was
Something that you never were
Something that I always was
We are the love, we are the love, we are the love
We are the love, we are the love, we are the love
'Cause this is our time
We are the love, we are the love, we are the love
'Cause this is our time
