

Let Go

Megan Rochell

Wha?

(we dont even talk no more)

Wha?

(i dont feel no love no more)

let go let go let go let go

Wha?

(you dont even try no more)

let go let go let go let go

Wha?

(i wish I met somebody before)

let go let go let go let go

let go let go let go let go

yea

I was spose to be yours totally so many things seemed to be so wrong you used to get all of the hints now all of it seems so difficult you say to me the kinda things my heart my ears aint heard before I used to think this would always be till I seen it happen three in a row

First you disrespect me
your supposed to protect me
this ain't my way
I'm just used to being dealt with kindly

I guess you got me
never have I been so weak

But I can(t?) go now
'Cause I got my whole life to find just what I need

As much as you hurt me

Why am I holdin' on

Why do I feel the need?

When I know I should just let go.

As much as you done to me

Still I keep holdin' on

Why do I feel the need?

When I know I should just let go

let go let go let

let go let go

let go let go let

let go let go

let go let go let

let go let go

let go let go let

let go let go

They look at me askin' to take your place 'cause my nights be so cold.
I'm not alright, I don't even get those fills those chills like I did before.

So tired of being over the sink saying I just can't take no more.

When you look at me, why can't you see

I need, I bleed, I'm in need of love.

First you disrespect me

your supposed to protect me

this ain't my way

I'm just used to being dealt with kindly

I guess you got me

never have I been so weak

But I can(t?) go now

'Cause I got my whole life to find just what I need

As much as you hurt me

Why am I holdin' on

Why do I feel the need?

When I know I should just let go.

As much as you done to me

Still I keep holdin' on

Why do I feel the need?

When I know I should just let go

Time to wake up from this dream and oh

(all this)

Ain't worth losin' no sleep no more

(I spent)

So much time givin' when all me was gone

(im here)

In the passenger's seat alone

As much as you hurt me

Why am I holdin' on

Why do I feel the need?

When I know I should just let go.

As much as you done to me
Still I keep holdin' on
Why do I feel the need?
When I know I should just let go

let go let go let
let go let go
let go let go let
let go let go
let go let go let
let go let go
let go let go let
let go let go
let go let go let
let go let go
let go let go let
let go let go
