Breathe You In

Papa Roach

Why do I got to learn the hard way
Why do I got to burn my bridges down
Now that I feel so numb
Can?t I just be me for fuck?s sake
Maybe I don?t have a purpose
Maybe I cut way too deep
Or maybe I?ll scratch the surface
To find out that I?m not worthless
And I have never been so alive
I feel a fire burning underneath my skin
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I feel a freedom from this hopelessness within
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I should?ve stopped when I saw you break in
I should?ve stopped but I had to see it through
Now that I?ve come undone
I know why I?ve been forsaken
Maybe I?m too weak to hold you
Maybe I?m just out of range
So sorry I suffocate you

It must feel like I hate you
But I have never been so alive
I feel a fire burning underneath my skin
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I feel a freedom from this hopelessness within
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I?ve been afraid to show you what I?m made of
And all of this time what was I so afraid of
You never did anything to make me feel this way
To make me feel this way
I feel a fire burning underneath my skin
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I feel a freedom from this hopelessness within

Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I breathe you in
I breathe you in
