

One Word

Fiji

Ooh, Ooh...

Oh, Ooh...

Oh, Ooh ooh

Well she's the type a woman that you never take notice of,
Until the day you open you eye's you saw she's beautiful, What struck you was her humble, she carried herself in her greatness, How lucky you must be to feel such passion in the makin'

Verse:

If I had one word,
from her lips I'll be grateful Let alone an opportunity to be her man, I'll be faithful,
I lay it all down,
just for her I will do it,
For one in my life I have finally, found something worth pursuin'
and its her

I was a drunk and a liar and a cheat and a thief, finally I found somebody that's so opposite of me, make me wanna do the things I never thought that I would do, make my boy's start to wonder why I'm missin' from the crew, us to be the most dependent brotha that they all run too, somethin' poppin, something droppin' they all know I was a fool, but the... time's has change and that I gotta be cool,...and I do it for you, oh baiibay!

Verse:

If I had one word,
from her lips, I'll be grateful, Let alone an opportunity to be

her man, I'll be faithful,
I lay it all down,
just for her I will do it, for once in my life I have finally found something worth pursuin',
and its her..

Happiness is such an understandment when I'm hangin' with her, and it's written all over my face, I'm surrounded by her warm and grace, everyday in my life, She put the pieces back together that was broken so long, and that would make a man like me wanna sit down and write her this soOong, Oh!
Baiibay! Yeaah!
