

The Night Embraces Me (new version '99)

Dying Wish

The night's an offspring of black dreams
Everything's dark, the shades on the walls
    Invite me
The memory of my dreams is a distant light
    The wind groans the sign of my soul
The night embraces me You've taken everything away
    You've only left an empty snap
    And this words that are dead since ages
    The could universe
    Has sticked to my face
The wishes have died somewhere I'm only lying in the silence
    The hours elapse on
Every memories are taken away by the dimness
    My soul's dancing in a red-hot fire
I'm flying in the wind far away from the earth
