

I Ask Of You

Anastacia

Your love is like a gentle breeze upon a brand-new day
Your touch and what it does to me like a flower needs its rain
We are like one of a kind, true love is hard to find
I can't go on another day just hear me when I say I ask of you, would you love me, if nothing else went right?
And I ask of you, would you hold me, forever in your life?
And don't let me fall, 'cause I can only give my all
Here I am, I ask of you, oh oh I found the place where I belong, it's right here next to you
And nothing else matters now, with all we've been through
I can't go on, tryin' to deny just what I feel inside
But now before I let go, you gotta let me know I ask of you, would you love me, if nothing else went right?
I ask of you, would you hold me, forever in your life?
Don't let me fall, 'cause I can only give my all
Here I am, I ask of you, yes I do, I ask of you Oh, I never really thought that you'd be all to me
I'd give everything and all I am to you
Oh baby, baby, I know you feel this way too I ask of you, would you love me, if nothing else went right?
And I ask of you, would you hold me, forever in your life?
And don't let me fall, 'cause I can only give my all
I can't pretend, I ask of you, I ask of you, oh yeah
