She Comes

Lit

Common sense
Goes out the window like a cigarette
Well, I take a hit again when all her friends
They talk about me in a past tense
Well, I take the hit againShe walks in, in the middle of the night
Like we're good to go
All screwed up but it just feels right
An' I don't wanna know where you go
Or how we went wrong
An' when I think you can't go wrongShe comes an' she comes
But when she goes
She always takes away the best of me
She comes an' she comes
An' when she's done
I'm left with nothin' but the rest of meIgnorance
My only explanation for this mess
Well, I think about it when we're on the fence
Between what is an' what it could've been
Well, I take the hit againShe walks in, in the middle of the night
Like we're good to go
All screwed up but it just feels right
An' I don't wanna know where you go
Or how we went wrong
An' when I think you can't go wrongShe comes an' she comes
But when she goes
She always takes away the best of me
She comes an' she comes
An' when she's done
I'm left with nothin' but the rest of meWhatever she does
I always come undoneShe comes an' she comes
But when she goes
She always takes away the best of me
She comes an' she comes
An' when she's done
I'm left with nothin' but the rest of meWhatever she does
I always come undoneI always come undone
