That Fire

Tanto Metro & Devonte

I tell you all the things you wanna hear
You ramble on 'bout how I am that
Fire !

So after all this time you're still so blind
Thought I was yours
You must have gone and lost your mind
I took it all there's nothing left
That you're showing me your weakness
You're so naive

I tell you all the things you wanna hear
You ramble on 'bout how I'm that fire
But if you knew how far this is from real
You'd walk away knowing I'm that
Fire !

Nothing's changed another day has gone
Full of lies, I only told you what you want
You've hit the wall and I can tell
'cause you're showing me your weakness

You're so naive
You're so naive

I tell you all the things you wanna hear
You ramble on 'bout how I'm that fire
But if you knew how far this is from real
You'd walk away knowing I'm that
Fire !

I tell you all the things you wanna hear
You ramble on 'bout how I'm that

I tell you all the things you wanna hear
You ramble on 'bout how I'm that fire
But if you knew, how far this is from real
You'd walk away knowing I'm that

I tell you all the things you wanna hear

You ramble on 'bout how I'm that fire
But if you knew, how far this is from real
You'd walk away knowing I'm that
Fire !
