Alive

Drain S.T.H.

As my blood has turned to dust
And all has died that I have trusted
I no longer want to be here
I can't deny I tried to dieBut I'm alive, can you feel it deep inside?
I'm alive, can you feel it deep inside?I know you as I know my pain
And my betrayal was the same
'Cause all we needed then was just a lie
I can't deny I tried to dieBut I'm alive can you feel it deep inside?
I'm alive can you feel it deep inside?
