

I Will Break Your Heart

Danko Jones

Drawn to the cold
And my heart of stone
A feeling from below
You crawl right under
Let desires go
Succumb with all your soul
Bastards call
But you walk right on
If there's one guarantee
It's that I will break your heart
Said it loud and clear
You can shed your tears
And hope against fear
But I will break your heart
Heed no warning signs
As you pay no mind
Something stronger
Is calling you now
In the dead of night
With your heart in tow
Broken now
As you walk on all fours
If there's one guarantee
It's that I will break your heart
Said it loud and clear
You can shed your tears
And hope against fear
But I will break your heart
You want to break here
I'll never get near
If there's one guarantee
It's that I will break your heart
Said it loud and clear
You can shed your tears
And hope against fear
But I will break your
I will break your heart
