Breathe This is the knowledge that I bring
Universal worldwide culture
Inhale, exhale This is the knowledge that I bring
Universal worldwide culture
I take it all in (No second guessing)
Truth brings forth this new passion
(No second guessing) Push aside this fate for the ransom
Stands among, gold seven and lox'd up
White wool, fire eyes, glowing in red
Water of rush, planet hold, in double edge Falling down dead, last first, it's one life
Life source, in resurrection, bloodstains
Shining face, this morning stars reflections
Embracing light, the clearness of sunrise
Tower strong, in this refuge, my fortress Breathe This is the knowledge that I bring
Universal worldwide culture
Inhale, exhale This is the knowledge that I bring
Universal worldwide culture
I take it all in (No second guessing)
Truth brings forth this new passion
No second guessing
Push aside this fate for the ransom
