When Love Hangs In the Balance

Ned Doheny

You're asleep at the wheel
The road is endless
The rush is all that's real
There's a love on the line
She makes you crazy
But you don't seem to mindWhen love hangs in the balance
You can't let it slide
You can't let it slide
Though it may be a slim chance
It can't be denied
Can't be deniedSo you hide what you feel
She's got potential
But she's young in years
You're a fool, don't you see
She doesn't want you
Why can't you let it beWhen love hangs in the balance
You can't let it slide
Can't let it slide
Though it may be a slim chance
Can't be denied
It can't be deniedWaste away
Hold your breath till you're blue
Oh no you can't undue
What love has done
You're not the one
She belongs to anotherWhen love hangs in the balance
Can't let it slide
Can't let it slide
Though it may be a slim chance
Can't be denied
Can't be deniedNo matter what you say boy
She's with you all the way boy
No matter what you say boy
She's with you all the way boy
