Flying Whales

GOJIRA

Water of chaos
Have invaded all space
The flood on earth again
I have to find the whales
That once did guides us
To dry lands of life
I won't despair
I'll break this dark all aroundUnder the heavy sea
I'll search the flight of whalesBeneath the seas I searched
And had a different view
Of us on earth
The sinking ship of men
But it's beyond the stars
I found the place
Where they were
And they finally came to lightOver the winds
They dwell in light
Like the arrow in the sky
I found myself on higher grounds
From up here
For I see them in flightNow I can see the whales
Looming out of the dark
Like arrows in the sky
I can't believe my eyes
But it's trueHuge tunnel ends in light
Like banks of clouds they gather
See massive shape of flesh
Swimming giants in the clear
The mightiest comes to me
I'm on the wing, wide open
They teach me how to fly
Slowly moving in the airSo much told with no words at all
Powerful presence for only speech
BreathOver the winds
They dwell in light
Fly
