

Cut Away

Throwdown

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I refuse to piss away my time,
I will dishonor these early graves
And I refuse to live my life choking on the ashes of my smoldering memories
Cut away cut away cut away from those who watched you sink
You'd rather keep them from your fucking life they only serve to make you
Weak This is what I am
The strength instilled
Straight edge
Harder than iron my will, my will
This is for life
For those we lost
Straight edge, stronger than ever the cause, the cause I refuse to piss away my time,
I will dishonor these early graves
And I refuse to live my life choking on the ashes of my smoldering memories
Cut away cut away cut away this cancer from your life
Sever it sever it sever ties with all the scum who helped you
Die This is what I am
The strength instilled
Straight edge
Harder than iron my will, my will
This is for life
For those we lost
Straight edge, stronger than ever the cause, the cause Rise from the wreckage the life that you knew is beneath you
Purge the weakness bleed out the lies Board up the ruins
Stronger than ever you rise That's right Straight edge
Stronger than ever we rise Straight edge
Stronger than ever we rise
