Holy Light

Phil Wickham

We have come
And now we will wait
For Your love to move
For Your light to breakStart a movement here
As we call Your Name
Let Your glory fall
Like a holy rainDead arise
Hearts be awakened
In this life
Earth will be shaken
Oh, oh, yeahGod who reigns over earth and sky
Flood this world with Your holy light
Start a fire that will never die
Flood this world with Your holy lightEvery knee will bow
Every eye will see
Everyone will shout
Jesus Christ is KingSlave run free
Chains be broken
Darkness flee
Eyes be opened
Oh, oh, yeah, yeahGod who reigns over earth and sky
Flood this world with Your holy light
Start a fire that will never die
Flood this world with Your holy lightHoly light
Shine Your lightThere's fire in our eye
It's burning bright for YouBring these dead bones back to life
Flood this world with lightGod who reigns over earth and sky
Flood this world with Your holy light
Start a fire that will never die
Flood this world with Your holy light
Flood this world with Your holy light
