

Chasing You

Bethel Music & Jenn Johnson

You hide, i want to find you, go
And i will follow you
I want to be where you areAs you move, i'm right beside you, oh
I'm running after you
I want to be where you areI'm chasing you
I'm so in love
Captivated, i just can't get enough
I'll spend my days
Running after your heart
Your heart, your heart, whoa
I'm chasing you
With all my love
Captivated, i just can't get enough
I'll spend my days
Running after your heart
Your heart, your heart, whoaHeart, you've won me heart and soul
And where you lead i'll go
I want to be where you areFrom the moment i rise, to the moment i sleep
My affection is for you, and even as i dream
I want to know you, i'm after your heart
This life, this love, was always meant to be
A wild, crazy adventure, discovering
The thrill, the rush, the more of you i see
The more it leaves me wanting
You're everything, you're everything
