PAMELA

Ultimate Spinach

I see jewels
melting and shining bright Rubies and sapphires vibrate as one

I hear prisms
crystal rainbows fill my sky shattered they glisten and blind the sun

Flashes of white light
The light goes through what I see Colored thought waves Prisms of poetry

I feel love promised Made of jade and rising high Frozen and hollow hidden in the maze
Pick up feathers
Blue eyed and seeing all Topples so gentle into empty pits
