A Promise I Make

Dakota Moon

Girl, you're every breath I take, oh baby
Your love rules every move I make, hmm baby
And I know that you can't read my mind
And baby, maybe IDon't say it as often as I should, but I really want it to be heard
When I say I love you that's for good, you have my word
That day after day after all, I will always be true
That's a promise I make to youYou, you take this heart of mine and make it better I need you to Come and walk with me through this life forever
And I know these words are long over due
And baby, maybe IDon't say it as often as I should, but I really want it to be heard
When I say I love you that's for good, you have my word
That day after day after all, I will always be true
That's a promise I make to youI may hold you, I may need you
And baby, maybe IDon't say it as often as I should, but I really want it to be heard
When I say I love you that's for good, you have my word
That day after day after all, I will always be true
That's a promise I make to youThat's a promise I make to you
A promise I make to you
A promise I make to you
A promise I make to you
