Sonic Youth

[Thurston]

In your mouth, a wad of cash
Moist roll of hundreds
Fingers through your hair
Silver quarters drop to your pleaded skirt
Canisters of whipped cream in your sweater pockets
A look of space and total life
Ready or not? The plan is to go to D.C. and hang out Go see girls rock
How long is the tour?
What time you guys playing?
Where you going next?
What comes first,
the music or the words?
