Fire in the Hole

Apolline

In a word to the wisdom tooth
To tell, or not, the truth, yeah
So open up and say, "Ahh", men
Well, rinse cup, and spit again
Forked tongue in double speak
Pretty soon you just might spring a leak
Inhale before you begin
Your iron lung's a bag of wind
There's a fire in the hole
Fire in the hole
There's a fire in the hole
Hey hey hey, hey hey, fire
Sweet 'n' sour, filiblister
Faucet pouring, fresh 'n' bitter
Come on, smile and say, "Cheese"
On a count of three
Ya got a mindful of decavities
Hey, chew your words lest you choke
You better watch your mouth
Wash it out with soap, yeah
Tongue tied in a tangled web

Your bile inside better left unsaid
There's a fire in the hole
Fire in the hole, hey hey hey, hey hey
Fire in the hole, hey hey hey, hey hey
Fire, ahh, shoot!
Hey hey, yeah
Huh, yeah
Hey hey, yeah
Hey hey hey, hey hey
There's a fire in the hole
Fire in the hole, hey hey hey, hey hey
There's a fire in the hole, hey hey hey, hey hey
Fire in the hole, hey hey hey, hey hey
There's a fire, fire, fire
A fire
Rudder of ship which sets the course
Does not the bit bridle the horse?

Great is the forest set by a small flame
Like a tongue on fire no one can tame
