

Many Moons Ago

Andreas Moe

You win me over
everytime I step across the losing line now baby.
You pull me closer
And I feel the taste even though it is away.
Isn't it strange?
How I feel a distant vibe burning through my veins
Isn't it strange?
How we survived all the flames?
Lay down lay your heart on mine now
Breathe breathe with me.
Now I know what I didn't know
Many moons ago.
Close your eyes as far as we can see
Close your eyes as far as we can see
Fate, is clearer
And I know that you are gold in my arms now baby
I pull you nearer
and sometimes I can hold the truth at bay
Isn't it strange?
How I feel a distant vibe burning through my veins
Isn't it strange?
How just the thoughts can bring you back again?
Lay down lay your heart on mine now
Breathe breathe with me.
Now I know what I didn't know
Many moons ago.
Close your eyes as far as we can see
Close your eyes as far as we can see
Now I finally know,
What I didn't know
many moons ago
