

Daughter Darling

Ratcat

Daughter Darling, you are so beautiful.
Daughter Darling, Kick off, (cough, cough).
The light in your hair the light
in your face....
It reveals your Discusting (frightening) embrace The clarity of my eye, it won't keep any secrets from me now Daughter Darling, you think you're so Divine.
But your cover tells its story.
The light in your hair the light
in your face
It reveals your beautiful embrace O Daughter Darling won't you ever relax you never take away my mind looking at you I will never attract Anything of your kind.
The light in your hair the light
in your face
It reveals your Divine embrace.....
