

Revenge Is Sweeter (than You Ever Were)

The Veronicas

I saw it in the news you told me they were wrong and I stood up for you cause I believed you were the one you had all the chances in the world to let me know the truth what the hell's wrong with you?

[Bridge]

are you even listening when I talk to you do you even care what I'm going through your eyes stare and they're staring right through me you're right there but its like you never knew me

[Chorus]

do you even know how much it hurt that you gave up on me to be with her revenge is sweeter than you ever were

I'm so mad at you right now and I can't even find the words and you're on the way down I can't wait to see you burn you try to make me hate that girl when I should be hating you what the hell's wrong with you

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

nothing can save you now that it's over I guess that you'll find out when you're no one don't say you're sorry now 'cause I just don't care nothing can save you now, nothing

nothing can save you now, nothing

[Bridge]

[Chorus]
