

All I Know

Moa Lignell

This is life, this is all we ask for
Nothing else; we cannot predict how it will go
When it's all we know I keep waiting for something else now
'Cause you see this is hard
I can't let you go
When you're all I know I'll breathe, I'll stay
I'll stay for yo, my dear
But there's nothing worse to watch your loved one slowly disappear
You know I care
I'll always wait right here
Waiting for our time to give up again She says this is the way to go now
So don't hold back on your feelings
Just let them show
Because now they're all you know I can't see this, I can't believe it
Breathing fast like you're just here
To come and go
Well still you're all I know I'll breathe, I'll stay
I'll stay for you my dear
But there's nothing worse to watch your loved one slowly disappear
You know I care
I'll always wait right here
Waiting for our time to give up again I believe that I'll meet you someday
Maybe not in this life
But not far away
You'll come home one day You'll be running like wind and water
Sing of love and of life
Like you used to do
And it was all you knew And I know I'd make you proud tonight
And I'll remember someday we will reunite But right now it is time to let you
Let you fly like a bird and I'll miss you so
But it is all I know
