

Alright, Ok

Ashley Parker Angel

Headlights flash and I see your face
Rear-view mirror as you drive away

Alright, ok

Street lights shine

And my heart goes numb

I should be pissed

But that's what you want

Alright, ok

Hey, and I can see in the pouring rain

That all roads lead me too yesterday

And now I know and now you know

Where we're going, hey

It's gonna be alright

It's gonna be ok

Your gonna feel alright, ok

It's gonna be alright

It's gonna be ok

Your gonna feel alright, ok

Alright, ok

I look back to see where you went

I found myself where I've never been

Alright, ok

Sun burns bright at the crack of noon

My hind side says that I'm over you

Alright, ok

Hey, and goodbye is all I could think to say

When all roads lead me too yesterday

And now I know, and now you know

Where we're going, hey

It's gonna be alright

It's gonna be ok

Your gonna feel alright, ok

It's gonna be alright

It's gonna be ok

Your gonna feel alright, ok

Alright, ok, alright, ok

And it keeps on getting better all the time

Every day, every day

'Cause you know that everything will work out fine

Now what do say, what do say?

It's gonna be alright

It's gonna be ok

Your gonna feel alright, ok

It's gonna be alright

It's gonna be ok

Your gonna feel alright, ok

Alright, ok
